Two wires are suspended horizontally. The current in the lower wire is $I_1$. The length of the two wires is $l$. The force of attraction between the two wires is $F$. The separation of the wires is $d$.

Calculate the current in the upper wire.

Answer: ________________________________